Venice, June 15. N. S.

THE Prince d'Elfeuf is arrived here from Naples. Prince Hercolani, the Imperial Ambaſſador, who had his Audience of Leave of the Senate ſome time ago, is gone to Bologna, from whence he intends to return very ſoon to Vienna. Count Colloredo, his Succeſſor, is expected here about the beginning of the next Month. On the 5th Inſtant an Earthquake was felt here, but it did no manner of Damage. All the Paſſages into the Territories of this State were opened on the 10th, by order of the Magiſtrate of Health. The Paliſadoes have been taken away, and the Noblemen, who guarded the Frontiers, are return'd to this City. They write from Rome, that the Pope had held a Conſiſtory, in which ſeveral Biſhops were propoſed, and Cardinal Piazza was declared Legat of Ferrara. The Marquis de Prie, who had reſided for ſome Years at that Place in Quality of Ambaſſador of his Imperial Majeſty, was ſet out from thence in order to return home. The Queen-Dowager of Poland was preparing to go to France, and had taken leave of the Pope, who had made her ſeveral Preſents of a conſiderable Value. Letters from Naples bring an Account, that an Edict had been publiſh'd, forbidding the Exportation of Corn from thence. The Vice-Roy had given Orders to have all the Caſtles well provided with Ammunition and warlike Stores. Several Pieces of Cannon were planted on the Mole, as alſo on the Batteries towards the Sea, and Preparations were making for a vigorous Defence, in caſe any Foreign Power ſhould attempt to make a Deſcent into the Kingdom. On the 5th Inſtant Te Deum was ſung in the Preſence of the Vice-Roy, for the Concluſion of the Treaty of Peace between the Emperor and France, and the People gave all poſſible Demonſtrations of their Joy upon that occaſion.

Berlin, June 19. N. S. Yeſterday the King, accompanied by the Prince of Anhalt, came hither from Spandau, where he review'd the Battalion of Swendi, which is in Garriſon at that Place. Some Days ago the Princeſs Sophia Charlotta Albertina, youngeſt Daughter of his Majeſty, died here, and was buried privately. On the 16th Monſieur Schulembourg, Chamberlain of the Elector of Hanover, arrived here, and notified the Death of the Electreſs Dowager. This Day the Court went into Mourning, and their Majeſties received the Compliments of Condoleance of the Foreign Miniſters upon that Occaſion. Baron Spar is returned hither from Hamburgh, and holds frequent Conferences with the Miniſters of Great Britain, France, Pruſſia, and Holſtein. Monſieur Lintelo, Envoy of the States-General, ſet out from hence a few Days ago for the Hague.

Hanover, June 25. N. S. On the 23d the Elector, the Electoral Prince and Princeſs ſet out for Pirmond, where they intend to continue three Weeks, and to drink the Waters of that Place. Baron Bothmar, Envoy Extraordinary of his Electoral Highneſs at the Hague, is appointed to go to Great Britain, to notify the Death of the Electreſs Dowager to Her Majeſty. They write from Brunſwick, that the Counts Flemming and Wackerbart, were gone ſuddenly from thence to Dreſden, having received Orders from King Auguſtus, their Maſter, to that purpoſe, at which the Plenipotentiaries of the other Princes ſeemed very much ſurprized. It is ſaid Count Wackerbart is to return to Vienna. We are informed, that the Emperor hath ſent a Body of Troops towards the Frontiers of Poland, but it is not yet known for what Deſign. The King of Denmark is arrived at Gottorp.

Hamburgh, June 26. N. S. We are informed, that the Miniſters aſſembled at Brunſwick, have agreed to leave that Place for a Month, and Count Schonborn, firſt Plenipotentiary of his Imperial Majeſty, is expected here in a few Days. Colonel Meyer, Envoy of Denmark to King Auguſtus, ſet out from Dreſden on the 20th, in order to return home. Three Regiments of Imperial Horſe are upon their March towards the Maine, and are to Encamp near Reinfels; upon which, the Landgrave of Heſſe Caſſel has reinforced the Garriſon of that Place. It is ſaid the King of Pruſſia intends to go to Caſſel, before he ſets out for Pomerania. A Swediſh Privateer of Helgeland has lately taken three Daniſh Veſſels richly laden from Bergues. Letters from Vienna bring an account, that Monſieur Sternhock was gone to the Court at Laxembourg, to deſire Paſſports for the King of Sweden, his Maſter, to paſs through Hungary. The Poliſh Troops that were commanded by the Palatin Kiovia, have ſubmitted themſelves to the Great General, and are join'd to the Army of the Crown.

Bruſſels, June 28. N. S. Monſieur Goſlinga, one of the Ambaſſadors Extraordinary from the States General to the moſt Chriſtian King, arrived here two Days ago from Paris, and to morrow he intends to proceed on his Journey to the Hague. Monſieur Peſters, the Dutch Intendant in Flanders, came hither at the ſame time from Aix la Chapelle, and will ſet out very ſoon for Ypres, in order to meet the Deputies ſent from Holland to viſit the Frontier Places on that ſide. It is ſaid, the Imperial Troops encamped at Neweid near Coblentz, amount to Ten thouſand Men, and they are to be reinforced in a ſhort time by ſome Regiments that are coming down the Rhine.

Hague, June 29. N. S. On the 27th Inſtant we receiv'd Advice from Utrecht, that the
